

As an avid user of the 160 meter band, both CW and SSB and licensed for over 33 years, I wholeheartedly support the petition to restrict wideband emissions to that portion above 1843 kHz. It is a sound idea, consistent with the other HF amateur bands and will better utilize the portion of the band above 1900 kHz which presently sees very little use.

respectfully, Mark Speck K0EJ